Beautification Award

The recipient of the Branson's Tree Board September Beautification Award was the Branson Hotel located at 214 W Main Street. Since 2006, the owners have put forth a lot of time, energy and thought into revitalizing the property, including its landscaping. Specifically, they have been working with Ethan Rogers, a current student at College of the Ozarks, on their landscaping and curb appeal. The result has transformed the Branson Hotel into a beautiful showpiece of the downtown area.

- Landscaped area must be highly visible to the general public
