Arbor Day Contest: Win a Year Membership to Branson's Dog Park

BRANSON, Mo – Branson's Parks & Recreation Department will host an Arbor Day Celebration on Tuesday, October 20, 2020, at 4:00 p.m. at the Elmo and Rosalea Marrs Memorial Dog Park, located in Stockstill Park at 645 Stockstill Lane, Branson, Missouri.

As part of the Arbor Day celebration, Mayor Edd Akers will declare October 20, 2020, as Arbor Day in Branson, a memorial tree will be dedicated to a local resident and the winner of a special social media contest will be announced. All area residents, community members, businesses and furry friends are invited to participate in the Arbor Day celebrations.

Social media contest:

- To enter, take a picture with your favorite tree at a Branson park, post it to Facebook and tag Branson Parks & Recreation (@Branson.RecPlex).
- Make sure to use the #BransonParksTrees hashtag.
- The winner of the contest will be announced after the memorial tree dedication and will receive a one-year membership to the Dog Park as well as some tree "swag."

As a designated Tree City USA for 25 years, the City of Branson places great value on trees in Branson Parks. Please visit Branson's Parks & Recreation Department website for more information on its "TreeKeepers" and "Memorial Tree Program."
