Branson Police Chief to Present Annual Report March 18

BRANSON, Mo – Branson Police Chief, Jeff Matthews will present the Department’s annual report to the Branson Board of Aldermen at the regularly scheduled virtual Study Session on March 18, 2021, at 12:30 p.m. which can be watched live or replayed anytime at www.bransonmo.gov/livestream.

This report will include 2020 year-end crime statistics, highlight the Branson Police Department’s accomplishments throughout the year and will lay out the objectives for 2021 and beyond.

"2020 was a challenging year in many ways, but I’m proud of our employees and how they have responded to each challenge and continued to deliver quality service to our residents and visitors," said Branson Police Chief Matthews. "I am encouraged by the progress we continue to make in our crime reduction efforts and community engagement. This report highlights our crime statistics and several of our community engagement initiatives," continued Chief Matthews.

The Branson Police Department encourages all citizens and community members to attend the virtual Study Session to hear the full report. You can find the agenda for this Study Session by visiting the “Agendas & Minutes” section on the City’s website. The Branson Police Department 2020 Annual Report can also be found on the City’s website under the Branson Police Department’s “Annual Reports” page.
